GENERAL PREDICTIONS

1). CHARACTER - Based on SUN'S Shathra, Dhrekkana, Sapthamsa and Navamsa.

You are a person of considerable action. You are never still. You are always making plans and the thing you can least tolerate is inactivity. You have much self will, and the spirit of independence is firmly planted in you. You resent the interference of others, perhaps more than you should, and freedom is a quality you prize very highly- freedom not only of action but also of thought.

At times, you show that you are endowed with brilliant attainments, you are far-seeing, you are charitable and kind, you are hospitable. However, you are advised to think in terms of strength and act in terms of strength so that you can really achieve whatever you want to show.

You are a person who wants to know the why and where of everything. Until you are satisfied on these points, you refrain from acting. Consequently, sometimes you miss a good deal, and some people look upon you as a procrastinator.

Your chief weakness is that you are somewhat easily impressed. In fact, you believe too much of what you hear. Unscrupulous people are quick to notice this defect in you and they are certain to trade it sooner or later. Therefore, be on your guard and avoid being victimised by someone who may come to you in the guise of a friend.

2). HAPPINESS AND FULFILLMENT - Based on MERCURY Shathra

You will often meet with disappointments and expect more, for you tend to worry so much that the very things you are afraid of usually happen. Very shy, you have great difficulty in communicating feelings and emotions. If you will clear your head of all worldly matters for a small period each day and sit in meditation, you will feel much peace and realise that things are not as bad as they seem.

3). LIFE STYLE - Based on MOON Shathra

You are precisely the one, people are talking about when they say that behind every successful person there is a lover. Your marriage partner will motivate you to accomplish your objectives.

4). CAREER - Based on LAGNA Shathra

You should find jobs which involve you with groups of people and where there is no pressure to meet commitments and responsibilities on a commercial level. You would find success in a career which would help people, such as group leadership.

5). OCCUPATION - Based on SATURN Shathra

You have, above all, a facility for putting thoughts into eloquent words. Thus, you would do admirably as a journalist, a lecturer or even as a traveller salesman. Never would you be at a loss for something to say. This quality would fit you for a teacher also. But, when your impatient moods overtake you, you would fare badly. In almost any occupation requiring quick thinking, you will succeed very well. But, it must not be monotonous work or you will prove an utter failure. You like change and variety, so that any job which takes you up and down the country or to some far-flung outpost, will be suitable for you. You will fare better as your own master than when working for somebody else. You want to come and go when you like and, to be able to do this, you must be your own master.

6). HEALTH - Based on MARS Shathra

Your health need not cause you any worry, but it must not be neglected. Your chief danger lies in submitting yourself to excesses of heat and cold, particularly the former. Either are bad for you. Beware of sunstroke especially if you have to travel in the Cold regions, and avoid anything that might tend to send up your temperature. Apoplexy, in later life, must be guarded against. It is highly important that you get plenty of sleep and do not keep late hours. This is imperative because, in your waking hours, you are excessively energetic and never still - all of which use up your vitality very rapidly. It is only with the aid of ample sleep that the loss can be repaired.

7). HOBBIES - Based on NEPTUNE Shathra

Regarding hobbies and pastimes, you will find that those which appeal to you most will be of a character which call for brains rather than muscle. At them you will succeed well enough. You may become a very good chess player. If card games interest you, you will be good in bridge.

8). LOVE MATTERS - Based on VENUS Shathra

You never forget friends. Consequently, you have a large circle of acquaintances, many of them speaking a foreign tongue. From among this large circle you will choose a partner, if you have not already done so. Usually, the choice will surprise those who know you best. You will marry and be comfortable. But, marriage will not be everything to you, as it is to most people. Other diversions will be there with it and take your interests away from the home. Should your partner endeavour to curb this inclination, it may lead to a possible rupture.

9). FINANCE - Based on JUPITER Shathra

In matters of money, you will be lucky during the early years of your life, but due to your own extravagance and lack of provision for the future, there will be grave danger of your finding yourself in an impoverished condition long before the end of your days. You cannot be too prudent in the matter of finance. You will not be really fitted for money grubbling in any of its forms. You belong more to the mental, intellectual plane and will care little about wealth if you can only have enough for your immediate wants. You belong to the hopeful class of individuals who are rather inclined to live in dreams.
